

Palm

SUNDAY

Today we will celebrate the Baptism

Joe Greene

We also welcome into Membership:

Jennifer Greene, Curt and Marilyn Dehmlow, Creston Whiting, Hannah Beals

The background of the entire image consists of a close-up, slightly blurred view of palm fronds. The fronds are a vibrant green color, with the central rachis and surrounding leaflets creating a series of parallel, diagonal lines that fan out from the top and bottom edges towards the center. The lighting is bright, creating a high-contrast effect between the dark green of the leaflets and the lighter green of the rachis.
